Columbus Police “Pinked Out” for Komen Columbus Race for the Cure

The Columbus Division of Police is proud to announce they will provide a “pinked out” police vehicle to lead the Komen Columbus Race for the Cure on Saturday, May 20, 2017.

The City of Columbus Fleet Management Division will transform a standard police vehicle from white, red and blue into a “pinked out” vehicle supporting the fight for a world against breast cancer. Personnel from the Fleet Management Division will complete the transformation on Wednesday, May 17, 2017.

Media representatives are invited to attend the unveiling ceremony on Thursday, May 18, 2017, at 2:00 pm. The ceremony will take place at the Fleet Management facility located at 4211 Groves Road.

Those in attendance:

- Chief of Police Kimberley K. Jacobs
- Katie Carter, Executive Director of Komen Columbus
- Lieutenant Dave Hughes, Columbus Police Support Operations Bureau
- Members of Columbus Police “Cops for a Cure”
